COMIC OF THE YEAR FOR 2002-for Hysterical Management and Laughing Hyena Recording Artist

A national and international touring comic for 12 years, this Louisiana-bred lady is fueled by ice cold beer, Crown Royale and a "Hot Flash Attitude". She calls her style of comedy "WSIWYG", WHAT YOU SEE IS WHAT YOU GET". "Hell, I'm 54, I'm all grown up, I say what I want, why? Because, I can; I've paid my dues, in more ways than one. I've worked for the phone company, most major Oil and Gas corporations as an Executive Financial Secretary, and I've run my own restaurant. I've been laid off, downsized, and with the restaurant, lost everything I owned. I can still do the same things now that I did when I was 20, evidently I didn't get that "Now that you're over 50 you die" memo. If I did, I damn well didn't pay attention to it." "If you are easily offended, then leave my planet, it's time to grown up and get your head out of the sand".

Please don't let the fifty-four and female fool you, this lady can perform in any venue, and has on many occasions. She is considered one of the finest "cross-over" headliners in the business. She has performed in front of African-American, Latino, Northern, Southern, Mid-Western, Southwestern audiences, as well as all age groups. Her audiences' age can be from 21 to 70, no matter what, they will all relate to "the Queen". Cajun people fit in any culture. Even Canadian audiences love "The Cajun Queen", in Ottawa they call her "The Devil in Red Boots". "I really don't care what your circumstances or your bank account is, people are all the same. We all have one thing in common, we are all human, that, is the common denominator. It's not anything more than that. All of us have to exist on the planet, we all eat, sleep, pay bills, raise children, etc.

Caroline has been called, "The Janis Joplin" of stand-up because of her honesty and rawness on stage. She feels that race is really not the issue, it's just a matter of language, and I happen to speak the right language." "I haven't appeared on TV yet, but that's only a matter of time. I have been told that I am too "old", too dirty, female comics aren't a draw, blah, blah, blah." "Yeah, whatever, this is not my first rodeo. At least XM Satellite Radio ain't afraid of me. Look, I have been working since I was 18. I have held many positions during my life, which is why my audiences can relate to my show. I know what they've been through. I should, I've been through it myself, many times." "What I really love is when the young ones "get it". When young people in her show come by and tell her that she reminds them of their grandmother, she politely reminds them "Remember kids your Grandma did acid, don't piss her off".

Caroline completed her eight military tour in January, 2004. A favorite with the troops, Caroline has performed in Ramstein and Sembach AB in Germany, Darmstadt Army Base, Darmstadt Germany, La Madelina Navy Base, La Madelina, Italy, Sigonella Base, Sicily, Osan, Busan, Navy Seoul, Okinawa, Camp Shields, as well as Tokyo, Atsugi, Sasebo, Iwakunia, Yukota, Camp Zuma, Masawa, Yokuoska Bases in Japan, and NAS Bahrain, the Persian Gulf.

Danny Martinez, Owner/Artistic Director, The Comedy Showcase

“Not only is she funny, she’s a top professional. It is with great pleasure and pride that I recommend Caroline Picard. Caroline has delighted many audiences here at The Comedy Showcase and has obtained quite a following. She has a unique style that has pleased audiences in over 40 states as well as Canada, Germany, Korea, Japan, and Bahrain (Military shows).”

Leatrice Spevack, Special to the Star, Reporter “The Toronto Star”

“This fiery femme’s style sizzles with R-rated raunch. Bolstered, no doubt, by the Coors Lite clutched in her hand--she had the twentysomething audience howling. Retro fashions, race relations, aging and nipple piercing were among the topics trounced by Picard’s in-your-face-tirade. As president of the World Wide Bitch Federation, a trademarked corporation that began as a joke formed to support all-chick comedy shows but with aspirations to move online as a female forum, she really takes the “bull” by the horns.”

Carol Pennington, Hysterical Management, Cleveland, Ohio.

“Caroline Picard is going to be a star, that is why I’m promoting her in my regions. The audiences in Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois just can’t get enough of her. They love the accent and the honesty she bring to the stage.” “She is the only comic, male or female to get a standing ovation in of my Michigan clubs and she was doing a headliner only show.” “Michigan audiences are “hard-core”, but damn if this Cajun didn’t rip them apart”.

Slade Ham, Comic/Club Owner “Comedy, TX”, Beaumont, Texas

“I have been working with Caroline for almost 5 years. She can close any show. It’s amazing to watch this lady work. Nothing scares her. I’ve had the privilege of sharing the stage with her many times, she is by far one of the best.”

Quotes from her Peers

“I’ve known Caroline for nine years, I have booked her, not only in my special shows, but in my Military shows, she delivers everytime.” Olivia Arrington--Comic/Promoter, Houston, Texas, Jeff Thornton, Lone Wolf Entertainment

“What a show, from the moment she hits the stage it’s non-stop energy and laughter” Billy D Washington--Comic, Houston, Texas

“Caroline speaks directly to the audience, no matter what the venue, people love her immediately. Her honesty crosses over to everyone”. Ralphie May Comic, Houston, Texas/Los Angeles, California-Last Comic Standing
